*“Lord, do you not care
that my sister has left me
by myself to do the serving?
Tell her to help me.”*

Luke 10:40

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

My dear family of St. Pius X and St. Leonard,

Thank you for the ways in which you've already begun to work towards uniting our two parishes. I've spent the last two weekends on our St. Pius campus (as well as many of the daily Masses) and have delighted in getting to know families and making connections. It has been encouraging to see how much cross-pollination there already is between sites, and I hope that those relationships continue to be formed. If you haven't already stopped over to visit the other site of our parish, please take some time to at least drive past sometime this week. Even better if you can stay for Mass or drop inside and pray your rosary in front of the Blessed Sacrament. To me, one of the critical early steps to success in this endeavor will depend upon our simple willingness to visit each others' spiritual homes. Familiarity with a place helps us to quickly begin to feel at home, and feeling at home helps us to begin to feel like family.

In the weeks leading up to our unification, I've been praying for the intercession of Chiara Lubich, a laywoman whose cause for canonization is already in process. Chiara was the foundress of the Focolare movement, a vibrant movement of disciples who are rooted in a spirituality of communion. The Focolare strive to live deeply the words of Christ, "that they all may be one, as you Father are in me and I in you" (Jn. 17:21). In other words, they take on as their primary mission the task of being instruments of radical unity in the world. That unity begins by living from a place of deep communion with the Trinity in prayer. The overarching goal of the Christian life is always to be wrapped in the Trinity's embrace. But being loved by God, really savoring His love, causes us to love differently as well. There is something superhuman in our capacity to desire what's really best for another person, even when it comes at a cost to us. His love moves us to truly enter into the reality of the other, to care deeply for their concerns, and to labor tirelessly on their behalf. It's the kind of love and the kind of unity that undergirds the word "family". And though it's a big task, the unity of our two parishes starts there, from the heart of the Trinity and our desire to be in communion with the Lord. Anything less reduces our project to hosting a couple shared events!

Thanks for your patience as we continue to hammer out the design of our shared bulletin. There's a lot happening at once, and in the short term we have to live with some of the clumsiness that comes from getting it in before the deadline. My hope is that it gets a little bit better each week! Know of my prayers for you and your family - please pray for me!

Mi querida familia de San Pio X y San Leonardo,

Gracias por las maneras en que ya has estado trabajando para unir a nuestras dos parroquias. Estuve los últimos dos fines de semana en nuestro campus de San Pio y me he alegrado en conocer a las familias y formar conexiones. Me animo al saber que ya hay mucha colaboración entre las dos comunidades y espero ver que estas relaciones crezcan. Si todavía no has pasado a visitar al otro campus de nuestra parroquia, hazme el favor de pasar por ahí por lo menos una vez manejando esta semana. Mejor si puedes asistir a misa o rezar tu rosario enfrente del Santísimo allá. Para mí, uno de los pasos esenciales para el éxito de este esfuerzo dependerá de nuestra disponibilidad a visitar el hogar espiritual el uno al otro. Esa familiaridad con el lugar nos ayuda a sentirse bien en casa, y esa sentirse bien rápido nos ayudará a vivir como familia.

En las semanas antes de nuestra unificación, he estado pidiendo por la intercesión de Chiara Lubich, una mujer laica cuya causa para la canonización ya está en marcha. Chiara era la fundadora del movimiento Focolare, un movimiento vibrante de discípulos arraigados en una espiritualidad de comunión. Los Focolare se esfuerzan para vivir profundamente las palabras de Cristo, "que todos sean uno, como tú, Padre, estás en mí y yo en ti" (Jn. 17:21). En otras palabras, toman como su misión principal la tarea de ser instrumentos de una unidad radical en el mundo. Esa unidad empieza con tener una profunda comunión con la Trinidad en la oración. La meta definitiva de la vida cristiana siempre es vivir envuelto en el abrazo de la Trinidad. Pero siendo amado por Dios, saboreando su amor, también nos causa a amar diferentemente. Hay algo sobrenatural en nuestra capacidad de querer lo mejor para la otra persona, aun cuando me cuesta. Su amor nos conmueve a entrar en la realidad del otro, preocuparnos totalmente por sus preocupaciones, y trabajar sin cansancio para el bien de ellos. Es el tipo de amor y el tipo de unidad que define la palabra "familia." Y aunque la tarea es algo grande, la unidad de nuestras dos parroquias comienza allí, desde el corazón de la Trinidad y nuestro deseo de estar en comunión con el Señor. ¡Fuera de esto, nos reducimos a tener unos eventos compartidos!

Gracias por tu paciencia mientras trabajamos en el boletín compartido. Hay muchas cosas sucediendo a la vez, y a corto plazo tendremos que aguantar la torpeza que a veces viene con la necesidad de alcanzar la fecha límite. Esperemos que cada semana se mejore un poco! Cuenta con mis oraciones y te pido las tuyas también!

While we work on transitioning campuses, the easiest way to support our parish ministries at St. Leonard Campus is by setting up a recurring donation via Pushpay. Every little bit helps! God bless you!

Thank you for your support!

Mientras trabajamos en la transición de las dos parroquias, la manera más fácil de apoyar a nuestros ministerios parroquiales con una donación es estableciendo una donación recurrente a través de Pushpay. ¡Cada pedacito ayuda! ¡Dios te bendiga!

Gracias por su asistencia.

Hello St. Pius X & St. Leonard Families,

I am Tony Davies a seminarian for the Archdiocese of Chicago. I entered St. Joseph College Seminary in 2018 and transferred to St. John Vianney College Seminary in St. Paul MN and graduated in 2022. I am in my fifth year of formation completing a pastoral year before I enter Mundelein. I will be at St. Leonard's for a full year living and working at the parish, as well as having a secular job.

I have felt God's calling me to be a priest from a very young age through the Mass and Eucharistic Adoration, as well as the Rosary. I ask that you please pray for me as I pray for you. Please don't hesitate to say hello and chat, see you in the Eucharist!

Peace, Tony
